

HANSEL AND GRETEL

穴埋めシートの使い方

- ・書籍に添付のMP3 CDの音声を聞きとって、下線部を埋めてください。
- ・左のアルファベット付き番号は該当する音声ファイル名を示しています。
- ・繰り返し何度聞いても構いません。
- ・正解は書籍の本文で確認してください。

	HANSEL AND GRETEL
G001	Once _____ a time, a poor woodcutter lived near a big _____ with his wife and two children, a boy and a girl. The boy was called Hansel, and the girl, Gretel.
G002	They never had nice things to eat. Sometimes, when there was a food _____ in the land, they could not even get bread. One night, as the father lay in bed, he was very _____.
G003	“What will happen to us? How can we _____ our little ones when we have nothing to eat ourselves?” he asked his wife.
G004	“Listen,” answered his wife, “early tomorrow morning we will take the children _____ into the woods, light them a fire, give each of them a piece of bread, then leave them alone. They will never find their way home and we will not have to feed them any more.”
G005	“No, wife,” said the man, “I cannot do that. I cannot leave my two little children alone in the woods. They will _____ be _____ by wild animals.”
G006	“Oh!” said she, “then all four of us will die of _____.” Finally, the poor woodcutter agreed to her plan.
G007	The two children, _____, were so hungry that they couldn’t sleep. They had heard their stepmother’s plan. Gretel said to Hansel, “We will die, _____ brother.”
G008	“Don’t cry Gretel,” said Hansel, “I will make _____ we don’t die.”
G009	When the old _____ went to sleep, Hansel put on his coat and quietly went out the back door. The moon was shining brightly and the white stones on the _____ in front of the house _____ like silver coins. Hansel filled his pockets full of stones and returned to his room.
G010	“Don’t be afraid, little sister,” he said to Gretel, “God will not _____ us. Now try to get some sleep.”
G011	_____ the next day the woman called the two children.
G012	“Get up, _____ of you,” she said, “and come with us into the woods to _____ sticks.” She gave each of them a piece of bread and told them it was for dinner. She told them not to eat it because they would get nothing else.

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G013	Soon, they left _____ for the woods. They had not gone far when Hansel stopped. He looked _____ at the house. He did this again and again. His father said, "Hansel, what are you looking at?"
G014	"Oh, father," said Hansel, "I am looking at my white dog sitting on the _____ waving good-bye to me."
G015	"That isn't your dog, you fool!" said his _____, "it's the morning sunlight shining on a stone." But Hansel had not really been looking at the dog; he was _____ the stones out of his pocket.
G016	When they came to the _____ of the woods the father said, "Now, children, _____ sticks and we will make a fire."
G017	Hansel and Gretel gathered up many sticks, and when the fire was _____ strongly, the woman said, "You can lie down by the fire and _____ yourselves while we go _____ to cut wood. When we have finished we will come and get you."
G018	Hansel and Gretel sat by the fire. When dinnertime came, they _____ their bread. They could still _____ the sound of wood being cut. They thought that their father was close by.
G019	However, their father had tied a branch to a tree. Every time the wind _____, the branch hit the tree. This was the noise the children heard. They were very _____ and soon they fell asleep in front of the fire.
G020	They did not _____ up until it was night and very dark. Gretel began to cry, and said, "We _____ never find our way out of the woods."
G021	"Wait," said Hansel, "the moon will be up in a _____. Then we'll find our way out quickly."
G022	Soon the great full moon _____ in the sky, and Hansel took his little sister's hand and _____ the stones. The stones shone brightly and showed them the way home.
G023	The children walked all night, and at _____ they reached their father's house. They knocked at the door and when the woman opened it and _____ Hansel and Gretel she looked surprised.
G024	Then she quickly said, "Why did you _____ so long in the woods? We began to think you were not coming back at all."
G025	The father was _____ to see the children. He felt that it was wrong to leave them alone and helpless.
G026	A short time later, there was another food _____.
G027	The children heard their stepmother saying to their father, "There is _____ anything left to eat, only a little bread. What will we do when that is gone? We must leave the children in the forest. This time we will take them _____ into the woods, so that they will not be able to find their way out. It's the only thing we can do to _____ us."

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G028	The man's heart was _____, and he thought, "I would rather share our last bread with the children." But the woman had made up her mind, and she would not listen to the man.
G029	He _____ in the first time and he gave in the second time too.
G030	The children, however, had heard everything. When his parents went to sleep, Hansel _____ up again to go out and pick up some stones. But, he couldn't go outside because the woman had closed the door. He said to his little sister, "Don't _____, Gretel, don't cry, go to sleep. God will take care of us."
G031	The next morning the woman _____ the children. She gave them _____ a piece of bread. It was a smaller piece of bread than last time.
G032	As they _____ to the woods Hansel broke the bread in his pocket and _____ little pieces on the ground.
G033	The woman _____ the children deeper and deeper into the forest. She led them to a part they had never _____ before.
G034	Again, a large fire was made and their stepmother said, "Stay _____, children, and when you are tired have a sleep. We are going _____ to cut wood. When we have finished we will come for you."
G035	When dinner-time came Gretel _____ her bread with Hansel, because he had dropped his as they walked _____. Then they fell asleep.
G036	The evening _____ by and no one came to get them. When they _____ it was dark. Hansel said to his sister, "Wait till the moon is up, then we shall see the bread I dropped on the ground. The bread will show us the way home."
G037	The moon _____, but they could see no bread. The _____ in the woods had eaten every piece. The children still tried to find the way home.
G038	They walked the _____ night and all the next day, but they were still in the woods. They were tired and hungry, and they _____ down under a tree and fell asleep.
G039	The next day they walked more. They _____ knew that they were deep in the woods. If help did not come soon they _____ die.
G040	Then they saw a beautiful snow-white bird sitting on a _____. It was singing so beautifully that they stopped to listen. When it finished its song, the bird flew in front of them. They followed it until it _____ on the roof of a little house.
G041	It was a strange-looking house. When the children got _____ they were happy to see that the house was built of bread. Its roof was made of cake and its windows were made of _____.
G042	"Okay," Hansel said, "let's have a good _____ for a _____. I will have a piece of the roof, and you have a nice, sweet window."
G043	Hansel _____ off a piece of the roof and began eating. Gretel _____ by a window and ate some of it. Then a voice called from inside:

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G044	“Who’s eating my house?”
G045	The children answered:
G046	“The wind, the wind, the child of _____,” and quietly continued eating.
G047	Hansel thought the roof _____ very good. He tore off another big piece. Gretel _____ out the window and sat down to eat it.
G048	Suddenly the door opened and an old woman came out. Hansel and Gretel _____ with _____. They dropped their food.
G049	The old woman said, “Dear children, who _____ you here? Come in and stay with me. You are _____ with me!”
G050	She took them by the hand and _____ them into the house. Inside, a good dinner was ready; milk, cakes, fruit and many other things the children had never even _____ before.
G051	_____, two little white beds were _____. Hansel and Gretel lay down in them and felt like they were in heaven.
G052	The old woman, however, was not nice. She was really a _____. She caught the children who came to her house. After she caught them, she killed them. Then she _____ and ate them.
G053	The witch could not see _____, but she had a good sense of smell. She could smell humans from far away. As soon as Hansel and Gretel came near her house, she had _____, and said to herself, “I’ll have them—they _____ not escape.”
G054	Early the next morning, before the children were _____, the witch got up. When she saw their round, red faces, she thought, “What a _____ dish!” Then she grabbed Hansel and carried him to a little stable. She put him inside it and he could not escape.
G055	He shouted as loudly as he could, but it was no _____. Next, the witch went to Gretel and cried, “Get up girl, and get some water to cook your brother something nice; he is outside in the _____ and must be _____ up. When he is fat enough I shall eat him.”
G056	Gretel began to cry, but she was _____ to do what the old witch told her to do.
G057	From then on, Hansel was given lots of good food, but Gretel got only _____ bread. Every morning the old witch went to the stable and said, “Hansel, put your _____ out so that I can feel how fat you are getting.”
G058	Hansel would put out a _____ instead of a finger. The old woman, because she could not see well, _____ why Hansel did not grow fat.
G059	After four weeks, Hansel was still _____. The witch decided she would wait no longer.
G060	“_____ Hansel is fat or thin, I will kill and eat him tomorrow!”

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G061	The _____ ran down the face of poor little Gretel.
G062	“Dear God, help us!” she _____. “If the wild animals had eaten us in the woods we would at _____ have died together.”
G063	When the witch had _____, Gretel ran to Hansel and told him what the witch had said.
G064	“We must _____ somehow. If we don’t she will kill us _____.”
G065	Hansel said, “I know how to get out. I have _____ the window. But first you must get her magic _____ so we can save ourselves if she follows us. Bring the flute that hangs in her room as well.”
G066	Gretel got both the wand and the _____, and the children escaped.
G067	When the old witch came to see _____ her dinner was ready, she saw they had escaped. She ran angrily to the window. _____ her eyes were bad, she could see the children running away.
G068	She quickly put on her magic shoes. The shoes could cover several _____ with each step. She quickly _____ up with the children.
G069	Gretel, _____, had seen her coming. She used the magic wand and turned Hansel into a _____. She turned herself into a swan and stayed in the middle of the lake.
G070	The witch sat on the _____ and tried to get the swan to come to her by throwing pieces of bread to it. Gretel did not go near, and at _____ the witch went home without the children.
G071	Then Gretel used the wand to change herself and Hansel back, and they _____ on through the night. Gretel then turned herself into a beautiful _____ in the middle of a _____ hedge, and Hansel sat by the side.
G072	Soon the witch came along. She _____ as if she did not know Hansel.
G073	“Young man,” she said, “_____ I pick that beautiful rose?”
G074	“Oh yes,” said Hansel.
G075	She went to the _____ in a hurry to gather the flower, knowing that it was Gretel. Hansel _____ out his flute and began to play.
G076	The flute was a magic flute. _____ heard the flute had to dance whether he wanted to dance or not. The old witch was forced to dance on and on.
G077	She could not stop to pick the rose. The thorns _____ the clothes from her body and caught in her _____. Finally, she could not move.
G078	Then Gretel used the magic wand to _____ herself free again and she and Hansel set out for home. After traveling a long way, Gretel _____ tired. Both the children lay down to sleep.
G079	As they slept, the witch, who had escaped from the thorny hedge, came _____. Seeing her magic wand, she picked it up and turned poor Hansel into a _____.

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G080	She then decided to leave them in the woods to be _____ by wild animals. It was too much trouble to try and get them to her house again.
G081	When Gretel _____ and found what had happened she cried for poor Hansel. _____ her, tears rolled from Hansel's eyes, too.
G082	Gretel said, "_____, little deer; I will never leave you."
G083	She took the poor deer with her as she tried to find her way home. At last they came to a little house. When Gretel _____ that no one lived there she decided she and Hansel _____ stay there.
G084	She made a soft bed for the deer. _____ morning she went out and gathered food for both of them. The deer ate _____ of her hand, and they played happily together.
G085	In the evening, when Gretel was tired, she _____ her head on the deer and _____. If Hansel had had his own body they would have led a very happy life.
G086	They lived like this for years and Gretel became a young woman. One day the king came to hunt there. When the deer heard the _____ of the hunt, the dogs, the horses and the _____, he wanted to see what was going on.
G087	"Oh sister," he said, "_____ me go into the woods, so I can see what is happening."
G088	He asked so _____ that at last Gretel let him go.
G089	"But," she said, "be sure to come back in the evening. I _____ close the door to keep out the huntsmen, but if you _____ and say, 'Sister, let me in,' I shall know it is you. If you do not speak, I shall keep the door closed."
G090	Hansel ran away as _____ as he could, jumping high in the air in his _____. The king and his huntsmen followed the beautiful animal, but could not catch him. Each time they thought they had him he would jump over a hedge and be out of _____ again.
G091	When it was dark Hansel ran home and said, "Sister, let me in!" Gretel opened the door and he jumped in. He was soon sleeping _____ on his soft bed.
G092	Next morning the hunt _____ and when he heard the noise, the deer said, "Sister, open the door. I _____ go."
G093	Once again the king and huntsmen followed the little deer. The hunt _____ all day. Near evening one of the hunters _____ the deer in the foot.
G094	_____ he was _____, Hansel got home before he was caught. The hunter followed Hansel and heard the little deer say, "Sister, let me in."
G095	The man saw the deer go inside the house. The huntsman ran to the king and told him what he had _____.

HANSEL AND GRETEL

G096	“Tomorrow,” said the king, “we shall have another _____ and this time we shall catch this deer.”
G097	Gretel was very upset when she saw that Hansel was hurt. She washed the _____ away and put some magic on his foot. Then they went to sleep.
G098	In the morning there was no _____ anywhere on the deer’s foot. When Hansel heard the hunt starting again he said, “I must go Gretel, but I will _____ care they don’t catch me.”
G099	But Gretel was still _____ from the night before.
G100	“I am sure they will _____ you this time: I will not let you go.”
G101	“I shall _____,” said Hansel, “if you keep me here.” Gretel was not happy but she had to let him go, and he quickly _____ off into the woods.
G102	When the king saw the deer he said to his men, “Follow him all day _____ until you catch him, but do not hurt him.”
G103	The deer was too _____ for them, _____. When evening came, the king told his men to stop.
G104	“Show me _____ the little house is,” he said to the man who had followed the deer the day before. When they got to the house the king _____ on the door and said “Sister, let me in.”
G105	The door opened and the king went in. He saw the most beautiful girl he had _____ seen.
G106	Gretel was very _____ when she saw that it was not the deer but a king who had entered her house, but the king _____ kindly. After a while he took her hand and said, “Will you come to my palace and be my wife?”
G107	“Yes,” replied Gretel, “I will come to your palace but I cannot _____ your wife, and my deer must go with me for I cannot _____ with him.”
G108	“Well,” said the king, “he shall come and _____ with you all your life. He will have everything he wants.”
G109	Just _____ the little deer came home. Soon, everyone was ready to leave. The king _____ Gretel onto his horse and they rode to his palace.
G110	The deer ran happily _____ them. On the way Gretel told the king her story. He knew the old witch and her bad ways and sent for her the next day. He _____ her to change the deer back into human form.
G111	When she saw her dear brother again Gretel was very _____. She agreed to marry the king. They lived happily for the rest of their _____. Hansel became the king’s right-hand man.